1. BACKGROUND

Piramal Finance Limited (PFL/Company), formerly known as Piramal Capital & Housing Finance Ltd, a wholly owned subsidiary of Piramal Enterprises Limited (the flagship company of Piramal Group) is a NBFC registered with Reserve Bank of India (RBI) and in the business of lending in retail and wholesale space

This document is intended to present the policy of the Company for dealing with retail customers/borrowers, in respect of determining the pricing for loans/credit facilities given by PFL, in a transparent and open manner. It is necessary to evolve a standard for pricing of loans with a view to ensuring that the pricing is fair and transparent

Keeping in view the below circulars (as amended from time to time), the following internal guiding principles and interest rate framework are therefore laid out

1. Master Direction – Non-Banking Financial Company – Housing Finance Company (Reserve Bank) Directions (“RBI Master Direction”), 2021 dated 17th February 2021
2. Reset of Floating Interest Rate on Equated Monthly Instalments (EMI) based Personal Loans vide circular DOR.MCS.REC.32/01.01.003/2023-24 dated August 18, 2023
3. Fair Lending Practice – Penal Charges in Loan Accounts vide circular DoR.MCS.REC.28/01.01.001/2023-24 dated August 18, 2023
4. Reserve Bank of India (Pre-payment Charges on Loans) Directions 2025 vide circular DoR.MCS.REC.38/01.01.001/2025-26 dated July 02, 2025

RBI has further consolidated Master Directions (MDs) administered by the Department of Regulation on an 'as-is' basis and issued separate set of MDs applicable to NBFCs. Accordingly, all these circulars are now included in Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Responsible Business Conduct) Directions, 2025 dated Nov 28, 2025

Furthermore, PFL will adhere to the extant RBI Guidelines/Circulars issued from time to time. This Policy is applicable for retail loans

2. INTEREST RATE

The Company lends money to its customers through fixed & floating rate loans

It lends through various products designed to cater to the needs of different category of customers,

- Mortgage (Individual salaried, Individual Self-employed, SME's)
- Consumer (Secured & Unsecured)

RBI requires that the Board of each NBFC should adopt an interest rate model taking into account relevant factors such as cost of funds, operating expenses, margin, risk premium and determine the rate of interest to be charged for loans and advances

PFL offers both floating interest rate loans and fixed interest rate loans depending on the nature of product

A. Floating Interest Rate

Rate of interest applied on Floating Rate loans comprise of two components, the FRR/RPLR and the spread. While the Company proposes a single FRR/RPLR for all retail loans, the spread can vary for different customers based on the parameters listed in this Policy

The applicable rate of interest for the same tenor for different clients can be different depending upon the combination of one or more of the below mentioned factors

PFL has now adopted a new methodology for benchmark computation for our floating lending rate viz. Floating Reference Rate (FRR). FRR shall be applicable to all new loans and advances sanctioned

All existing loans will continue to be linked with RPLR as per the terms agreed and mentioned in the sanction letter

Any change in FRR will also result in corresponding change in RPLR

Determination of Floating Reference Rate (FRR)

The Asset Liability Committee (“ALCO”) will review and approve the FRR which will be calculated based on following parameters:

- a) Average cost of Borrowing
- b) Operating Expenses
- c) Credit Cost
- d) Profit Margin
- e) Enterprise Risk Premia

Determination of Spread

The spread is calculated taking into account below parameters:

- a) Credit Risk Impact (based on parameters that are used to identify the credit profile of customer, nature of product and security, if applicable)

The Retail Business team will determine Credit Risk Impact and the case specific applicable Premium/Discount based on following factors:

The Credit Risk Impact attached with a customer shall be assessed inter-alia based on a combination of one or more of the following factors:

- Profile and market reputation of the borrower including usage of internal credit scoring models leveraging traditional approaches like Bureau score, performance as well as alternative data sources,
- Inherent nature of the product, type / nature of facility, refinance avenues, whether loan is eligible for bank financing, loan to value of asset financed,
- Tenure of relationship with the borrower, past repayment track record and historical performance of our similar clients,
- Overall customer yield, future potential, repayment capacity based on cash flows, income assessment method/loan eligibility and other financial commitments of the borrower,
- Nature and value of primary and secondary collateral / security, location,
- Type of asset being financed, end use of the loan represented by the underlying asset,
- Interest, default risk in related business segment, credit guarantee, sourcing (physical/digital)

- Regulatory stipulations, if applicable,
 - Tenure, quantum, repayment schedule and structure (including proposed moratorium, if any)
 - Any other factors that may be relevant in a particular case
- b) Product Specific Premium/Discount (including leviable charges and customer specific premium/discount)

B. Fixed Interest Rate

Rate of interest applied on Fixed Rate loans is determined on the basis of multiple parameters, including but not limited to:

- a) Average cost of Borrowing
- b) Operating Expenses
- c) Credit Cost
- d) Profit Margin
- e) Enterprise Risk Premia

C. Determination of Final Pricing

These parameters/factors mentioned above play a critical role in determining the final pricing. The final pricing of the product is calculated by adding Operating Expenses, Credit Cost and Margins/Profit to the Cost of Funds. These varies from product to product

Final Pricing = Cost of Funds + Operating Expenses + Credit Cost + Profit

Maximum ROI and APR cap of all products are mentioned below as approved in Product Governing Council:

Products	Min ROI (p.a.)	Max ROI (p.a.)	Max APR cap (p.a.)
Housing Loans (AF, MA, BH)	Cost of Funds	19%	21%
MSME Secured Loans (LAP, SBL)		21%	23%
MSME Secured Loans (Micro LAP)		24%	27%
Unsecured Business Loans		30%	34%
Used Car Loans		22%	25%
Microfinance		26%	30%
Microfinance Co-lending		30%	38%
Branch Personal Loans		30%	33%
Digital Loans (PL) – Salaried (>12 months tenure)		35%	40%
Digital Loans (PL) – Salaried (<12 months tenure)		35%	45%

Digital Loans – Self employed	42%	50%
Loan Against Securities	15%	17.5%
Gold Loans	30%	35%

This is the maximum approved cap beyond which a borrower cannot be charged. It may look high due to higher marketing and other expenses, however the actual weighted ROI charged to borrower(s) are way below this (refer above table). Also, shorter tenure loans tend to have a higher APR*

D. Annualized Percentage Rate (APR)

The rate of interest alone doesn't represent the actual cost of borrowing for the borrower since it /doesn't include various additional costs and fees associated with the loan. These extra expenses can impact the overall cost of borrowing

APR provides a more accurate cost of loan to the borrower. Apart from rate of interest, it also includes other charges like processing fee and insurance premium, if applicable. It does not include charges like stamp duty, prepayment charges, penal charges, CERSAI charges, etc.

APR is disclosed as it gives the borrower a clear understanding of how much the loan will cost over the tenure of the loan

APR is effectively the ROI calculated on the net disbursed amount after deducting processing fee and insurance premium

E. Pricing Matrix

This covers the product specific pricing matrix, applicable rate of interest, annualized percentage rate, processing fee and any other related charges

The interest rate would be-
